3. The student will write an exegetical paper.

- A Grammatical Analysis of the Greek New Testament by Max Zerwick

IV. Evaluation of Student Performance
1. Class Attendance – for Campus students, due to the concentrated nature of the lectures, one unexcused class absence will reduce final grade by a letter grade. A 2nd unexcused absence will result in an additional research assignment required for a passing grade. A 3rd unexcused absence will result in a failing grade. Extension and Online students must listen to the recorded lectures in their entirety and must fulfill all other format-specific requirements in order to receive a passing grade.

2. Reading Assignments and Accountability – The student will make a notebook for his/her use for Greek exegesis (everything is included in the notes and the lectures). Every student must read through the book of Ephesians in Greek (this must be acknowledged). You may use sources such as linguistic keys, programs for parsing, GNT lexicons, or parsing guides.

3. Research Assignments – A mini-exegetical paper (about 11 pages) with all components is required. All the lectures will give details on exactly what to do (there is a sample exegetical paper included in the notes).

4. Course Exams – There are no exams.

5. Online Interaction – This will be determined by the online instructor.

6. Campus students will submit assignments as directed by the Professor. Extension students will submit assignments to coursework@tyndale.edu on or before the course due date. Online Students will submit assignments as directed by the Online Professor.

Writing Guidelines

All research papers and theses are to follow Turabian guidelines as found in Kate L. Turabian A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations 7th Ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2007). All students are required to purchase a copy of A Manual for Writers to ensure the proper format. All work is to follow these guidelines:

1. Font & Font Size: Times New Roman, 12 point
2. Double space
3. 1-inch margins (File – Page Setup – Margins)
4. Indent paragraphs .5 inch (Format– Paragraph – Indent left)
5. Page numbers – lower center or upper right –beginning with the first page of text, but not on title page; Arabic numbers only (e.g., 1, 2; not Roman numerals); no other header or footer
6. Title page; then title again on page one (for formal papers)
7. In essay-type papers, ALWAYS write logically, persuasively, focused on the assigned topic; include a succinct introduction that informs the reader concerning the subject of your paper, and a succinct conclusion that summarizes your main points and expresses your resulting conclusion.
8. Use footnotes rather than endnotes, except in dissertation/thesis, where section endnotes are also acceptable.
9. All work should be proofread, as errors in spelling, grammar, and syntax will reduce assignment grade.

Plagiarism Policy

Plagiarism is against Tyndale policy, and any act of plagiarism will result in disciplinary action up to student dismissal from further study at Tyndale. Plagiarism includes but is not limited to quoting materials without proper citing or reference. Cutting and pasting of online and other materials requires proper citing via quotation marks and footnote.

Contact

If you anticipate difficulty in meeting any of these requirements, please contact your Professor (Campus & Online students) or the Registrar’s office (Extension & Intensive students) as soon as possible. A complete review of all Tyndale policies and procedures can be found in the Tyndale Theological Seminary and Biblical Institute Academic Catalog.
