From the President

“Pay close attention to yourself and to your teaching” (1 Timothy 4:16)

This passage, written by the Apostle Paul to his “son-in-the-faith” Timothy, has stood as Tyndale’s banner for many years now, and with good reason. It not only summarizes the biblical mandate we pass on to all of our students, but it serves as the model for all of our teachers and administrators as well.

Here at Tyndale we teach Bible enthusiasts, Bible teachers, deacons, pastors, and pastoral candidates; virtually anyone with an interest in the Bible, and we strive to provide instruction in both of these areas mentioned by the Apostle Paul.

But we don’t start there, we start at the beginning.

When Judah was being prepared for conquest by Babylon, one of God’s complaints against His chosen people was that they didn’t “know” Him. So our LORD gave this message to Judah through his prophet Jeremiah.

“Thus says the LORD, ‘Let not a wise man boast of his wisdom, and let not the mighty man boast of his might, let not a rich man boast of his riches; but let him who boasts boast of this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD who exercises loving kindness, justice and righteousness on earth; for I delight in these things,’ declares the LORD.” (Jeremiah 9:23-24)

At Tyndale, we teach the literal, grammatical, historical method of biblical interpretation, consistently applied from Genesis through Revelation. By doing this we ensure that our students “know” God through His word and are able to then effectively communicate that knowledge to others through exegetical verse-by-verse teaching, resulting in sound doctrine.

If you too would like to “know” God, through the effective study of His word, to not only grow as a believer but to take forth His word as a Bible teacher or pastor/teacher then join us here at Tyndale.

For His Greater Glory,

Patrick Belvill, Th.D

President

Tyndale Theological Seminary & Biblical Institute

Mission & Values

Mission Statement

The mission of Tyndale Theological Seminary and Biblical Institute, as an arm of Tyndale Bible Church, is to prepare godly believers for the ministry of exegetical and expository teaching of the word of God for effective and spiritually mature leadership and service worldwide.

Values Statement

The institution will (1) maintain a detailed doctrinal statement, to ensure that the school's foundations remain consistent, strong, and identifiable, (2) maintain a strong commitment to the teaching of Biblical languages, in order to ensure that students gain the tools needed for rightly dividing the word of truth in the original languages, (3) maintain a focus on strong verse-by-verse exegetical teaching, to ensure that students become capable exegetes, theologians, and expositors, (4) maintain the emphasis of spiritual maturity, recognizing that the teaching of God's word should result in an ever-growing appreciation of truth and deeper relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ.

Tyndale's 9 Standards of Accountability

1. Tyndale Theological Seminary will seek to honorably and faithfully execute the stewardship of all provided resources to the glory of God.
2. Tyndale Theological Seminary will undergo a periodic financial review by an independent accounting firm.
3. Tyndale Theological Seminary will maintain its non-profit educational 501(c)(3) tax status with the Department of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service(IRS), assuring full deductibility of gifts which meet IRS Requirements.
4. Tyndale Theological Seminary will use gifts for the purposes designated by donors. When undesignated, gifts will be used for current Seminary priorities.
5. Tyndale Theological Seminary will promptly issue receipts for every donation, with necessary information to satisfy all IRS requirements.
6. Tyndale Theological Seminary will only conduct gift solicitation by way of Seminary officers, employees, or volunteers and will not utilize external fundraising organizations.
7. Tyndale Theological Seminary will not release, sell or otherwise distribute mailing lists to any organization, and will maintain confidentiality of all donor records to the greatest legal extent.
8. Tyndale Theological Seminary will make quarterly financial statements available to donors upon request, and will answer all inquiries from donors promptly.
9. Tyndale Theological Seminary expenditure budgets and salaries will be approved by its Board of Governors.

About William Tyndale

Although the Bible was available in the vernacular in much of Europe, the only version of the Scripture tolerated in England was St. Jerome's Latin translation which dated back to the 4th century. It was thus a closed book even to most clergymen, but Tyndale was determined to make God's Word accessible to all men.

He was forbidden to work in England because as early as 1408 a council of clergymen met at Oxford, England, and decided that the common people should not be allowed to have copies of the Bible in their own tongue for personal use.

Tyndale moved to Germany where he translated and printed in English the New Testament and half the Old Testament between 1525 and 1535. He worked from the Greek and Hebrew original texts when knowledge of those languages was rare. His pocket-sized Bible translations were smuggled into England, and then ruthlessly sought out by the Church, confiscated and destroyed.

Ultimately, Tyndale was betrayed by a friend, arrested in Brussels, Belgium, and condemned as a heretic. He was brought forth to the place of execution, was tied to the stake, strangled by the hangman, and afterwards consumed with fire, at the town of Vilvorde, A.D. 1536.

As he died, he cried at the stake with a fervent zeal, and a loud voice, "Lord! Open the King of England's eyes." This God did less than a year later when in August of 1537, King Henry VIII gave authorization to the Bible generally known as Matthew's Bible. He decreed that it should be freely sold and read within his realm.

Thus Tyndale's great desire to get the Bible in the hands of the common people was realized and the Reformation followed soon after!

Tyndale Open Campus – Tyndale’s Massive Open Online Course Model (MOOC)

The Tyndale Open Campus (TOC) allows access to select Tyndale courses and course materials without any fees or assignment requirements. While the TOC cannot be used to take courses for credit toward degree programs, the course lectures and materials are identical to the materials in the for-credit Tyndale Cloud Campus.

Tyndale Cloud Campus – Online/Distance Learning

The Tyndale Cloud Campus (TCC). TCC is a cloud-based, rather than site-based delivery of course materials. Students can be online anytime, connected to Tyndale’s server or they can download course materials to their devices, un-tethered to an online campus. TCC course materials are identical to Campus course materials, for the highest quality of Biblical education. Each student receives one-on-one interaction and mentoring with every class, for the best, most interactive learning experience. TCC students can study at their own pace. Though courses are designed to follow the 9-module structure of the Campus semester, they can be completed as quickly as the student is able or out to a maximum of 12 weeks. TCC students may take only one course at a time, allowing them to focus more efficiently and complete the course as quickly as they desire and are able. TCC students can start coursework at any time without semester restriction. TCC students are supervised by Advising Professors (AP, graduate) and Advising Instructors (AI, undergraduate) who mentor the student for the duration of the course.

Continuing Education – Campus & Distance Learning

Tyndale offers unique opportunity for Tyndale alumni and others to continue growth and learning on Campus, at a Learning Center, or via the Tyndale Cloud Campus.

Tyndale at Your Church

Tyndale encourages offering course work in churches worldwide in order to expose a large number of students to formal Biblical studies. Most programs can be completed in this format. Contact Tyndale for more information regarding a Tyndale Learning Center at your local church.

Student Doctrinal Requirement

All graduating Tyndale students beyond the undergraduate level must, as a final prerequisite to the completion of their programs, testify by signature their complete and without reservation agreement with Tyndale's doctrinal statement. This applies to all current graduate and seminary programs without exception.

It should be noted that this requirement was newly initiated with the publishing of the 2006-2007 catalog, and therefore previous graduates (and students currently completing or graduating under previous programs) have not been subject to this requirement.

Complete and without reservation agreement with Tyndale's doctrinal statement is required before entering any of Tyndale's doctoral programs.

Doctrinal Statement

I. The Scriptures

We believe all the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are inspired by God. This refers to the autographs as written by the prophets and apostles. Thus the Bible is inerrant and without mistakes in the original. We believe Scripture reveals the mind of God to man, and points to the Lord Jesus Christ and the only way of Salvation through Christ. The Scriptures are the only infallible guide for our daily thought-life as well as our practical, moral, and spiritual instruction.

[Mark 12:26, 36; 13:11; Luke 24:27, 44; John 5:39; Acts 1:16; 17:2-3; 18:28; 26:22-23; 28:23; Rom. 15:4; 1 Cor. 2:13; 10:11; 2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21]

II. The Interpretation of Scripture

In some ways interpretation of Scripture would not be considered doctrine, yet as it affects the way our doctrine is arrived at, it is extremely important, and so becomes an essential doctrinal issue.

Hermeneutics is the discipline of interpretation. There are indications in both Testaments as to the normative method of interpretation. Conservative, normal and literal hermeneutics takes a very tried and true approach to understanding the Bible that should include close observation of its grammatical and historical components. It would argue for but one sense or meaning for each passage of Scripture, leaving no room for a complementary or theological approach. Though taking the Word of God literally, and at face value, in classical hermeneutics there is room for poetry, figures of speech, illustrations, types, and symbols, but these literary genres do not take away from the foundational or normal interpretative understanding of Biblical truth. Normal interpretation also argues for progressive revelation, i.e., that the Holy Spirit over a period of time revealed certain truths in a progressive fashion. For example, the revelation of Jesus Christ starts in Genesis, but is not fully complete until the book of Revelation.

Literal interpretation stands in opposition to allegorical interpretation. Though the Apostle Paul in Galatians creates an allegory in order to make an isolated point or illustration (4:21-26), allegory as a system is but an unacceptable philosophical approach to understanding the Word of God. It is clearly contrary to proper Biblical interpretation.

[Luke 1:1-4; 24:35; 44-46, 48; John 21:20-23; Acts 10:8; 17:11-12; 26:6-7; 26-27]

III. The Godhead

We believe that the Godhead eternally exists in three persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit - and that these three are one God, having the precise same nature, attributes, and perfections and worthy of precisely the same honor, confidence, and obedience.

[Mt. 28:18-19; Mk 12:29; Jn 1:14; Acts 5:3-4; 2 Cor. 13:14; Heb. 1:1-3; Rev. 1:4-6]

IV. God's Grace

We believe that according to the "eternal purpose" of God (Eph. 3:11) salvation in the divine reckoning is always "by grace through faith," and rests upon the basis of the shed blood of Christ. We believe that God has always been gracious, regardless of the dispensation, but that man has not at all times been under an administration or stewardship of grace as is true in the present dispensation of the Church. [Cor. 9:17; Eph. 3:2; 3:9; Col. 1:25; 1 Tim. 1:4]

V. The Sovereignty of God

Though God is Absolute Sovereign over all creation and history, He has a "determined plan for the whole world" and no one can alter His purposes (Isa. 14:26-27). What He has planned that He will accomplish (Isa. 46:11). And, He "works out everything in conformity with the purpose of His will" (Eph. 1:11); "Surely as I have planned, so it will be, and as I have purposed, so it will stand" (Isa. 14:24). Sovereignty also extends to the providence of God whereby He sustains all creatures, giving them life and removing life as He pleases (Deut. 32:39). In sovereignty, all things were created for the glory of God and all things exist for Him (Rev. 4:11). The sovereignty of God also extends to the doctrine of divine election whereby those chosen by the council of the Lord's own will, shall come to Him in faith. And yet, even though difficult to reconcile in human understanding, the sovereignty of God does not remove the responsibility of man. He is not the author of sin. Yet in some mysterious way, His decrees include all that takes place in the universe.

[Jn. 6:37, 39, 44; Eph. 1:3-18; II Thess. 2:13; Hab. 1:6, 11; Acts 2:22-23, 36]

VI. Angels, Fallen and Unfallen

We believe that God created an innumerable company of sinless, spiritual beings, known as angels; that one, "the anointed cherub" - the highest in rank - sinned through pride, thereby becoming Satan; that a great company of the angels followed him in his moral fall, some of whom became demons and are active as his agents and associates in the prosecution of his unholy purposes, while others who fell are "reserved in everlasting chains under darkness until the judgment of the great day." [Isa. 14:12-17; Ezek. 28:11-19; 1 Tim. 3:6; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6]

VII. Man, Created and Fallen

We believe that man was originally created in the image and after the likeness of God, as God's representative 'vice-regent,' and that he fell through sin, in consequence losing his spiritual life. As 'fallen he is "dead in trespasses and sins", and that he became subject to the reign of sin and the power of the devil. Paul adds that the lost are mentally blinded by Satan, the god of this world, and that the truth of the gospel is veiled from those who are destroying themselves (II Cor. 4:3-4). The Word of God makes it clear, there is no one who seeks after God (Rom. 3:11). So God has given mankind over to the lusts of his heart and to a depraved mind (Rom. 1:24, 28). Theologically, this darkness of mind and heart has been rightly called Total Depravity (Rom 1:28).

Following the sin of Adam, man could only produce descendants who would be sinners. Therefore all mankind is under the death sentence and penalty of sin (Rom. 5:12-18) and thus are all condemned. Only through the reconciliation of Christ, by His death, are human beings who are enemies of God being saved (Rom. 5:10). Sinners are justified by Christ's blood, and are rescued from the wrath of God. [Gen. 1:26; 2:17; 6:5; Ps. 14:1-3; 51:5; Jer. 17:9; Eph. 2:1-6]

VIII. The Incarnation of Christ

We believe that, as provided and purposed by God and as preannounced in the prophecies of the Scriptures, the eternal Son of God came into this world that He might reconcile men to God and become the Redeemer of a lost world. To this end He was born of the virgin, and received a human body and a sinless human nature.

We believe that in fulfillment of prophecy He came first to Israel as her Messiah-King, and, being rejected of that nation, He gave His life as a ransom for all according to the eternal counsels of God.

We believe that, according to the Scriptures, He rose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which He had lived and died, and that His resurrection body is the pattern of that body which ultimately will be given to all believers.

[Luke 1:30-35; John 1:18; 3:16; Heb. 4:15; John 1:11; Acts 2:22-24; 1 Tim. 2:6; John 20:20; Phil. 3:20-21]

IX. Salvation Only through Christ

We believe that, owing to spiritual death through sin, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless born again; and that no degree of reformation however great, no attainment in morality however high, no culture however attractive, no baptism or other ordinance however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward heaven; but a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word, is absolutely essential to salvation, and only those thus saved are sons of God.

[John 1:12; 3:16; Rom. 1:16-17; 3:22; Gal. 3:22]

X. The Believer Complete in Christ

Though the saved one may have occasion to grow in the realization of his blessings and to know a fuller measure of divine power through the yielding of his life more fully to God, he is, as soon as he is saved, in possession of every spiritual blessing and absolutely complete in Christ (positionally speaking), and is therefore, in no way required by God to seek a so-called "second blessing," "second work of grace," or a "second baptism."

[1 Cor. 3:21-23; Eph. 1:3; Col. 2:10; 1 John 4:17; 5:11-12]

XI. The Extent of Salvation

We hold that Christ's atonement was unlimited as to its provision for fallen humanity but limited as to its application to the elect. Thus, we reject the Reformed doctrine of Limited Atonement.

[2 Pet. 3:9; 1 Jn. 2:2; 1 Tim. 4:10]

XII. Lordship Salvation

We reject what is called Lordship Salvation. This teaching seems to go against the clear biblical teaching that salvation is by grace through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Nothing can be added to His work on the cross, or to the proclamation of one's personal faith and trust in His finished work of eternal redemption.

XIII. Eternal Security

We believe God keeps eternally all those He has elected and called to salvation and that none are lost. God will, however, chasten and correct His own in infinite love; but having undertaken to save them and keep them forever, apart from all human merit, He, who cannot fail, will in the end present every one faultless in Christ, and on His merits, before the presence of His glory and conformed to the image of His Son.

We believe that saints can have eternal assurance that they are the children of God and so are eternally kept by the power of God. This assurance gives confidence and peace, helping the believer grow in spiritual maturity.

[John 5:24; 10:28; 13:1; Eph. 1:3-17; 1 John 5:13; Rom. 8:29]

XIV. The Holy Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Trinity, though omnipresent from all eternity, took up His abode in the world in a special sense on the day of Pentecost according to the divine promise. By His baptism He unites all to Christ in one body and indwells every believer. As the indwelling One, He is the Source of all power, all acceptable worship and service, and all spiritual gifts.

We believe that the foundational spiritual gifts, such as tongues, prophecy, and knowledge, as well as the role of apostleship and the function of signs, miracles and wonders, have ceased.

[John 14:16-17; 16:7-15; 1 Cor. 6:19; 12:1-14: 31; Eph. 2:22; 2 Thess. 2:7]

XV. The Great Commission

We believe that it is the explicit command of our Lord Jesus Christ to make disciples in accordance with His Gospel, through evangelism of non-believers and instruction of believers, for the building up of the body of Christ.

[Mt. 28:18-19; John 17:18; Acts 1:8; 1 Pet 1:17; 2:11]

XVI. The Blessed Hope

We believe that the next great event in the fulfillment of prophecy will be the coming of the Lord in the air to receive to Himself into heaven both His own who are alive and remain unto His coming, and also all who have fallen asleep in Jesus, and that this event is the blessed hope set before us in the Scripture, and for this we should be constantly looking.

[John 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 15:51-52; 1 Thess. 4:13-18; Titus 2:11-14]

XVII. The Apostasy of the Church

Without designating a specific time table, the Apostle Paul warns of a "falling away" from the faith (2 Tim 4:1) that will lead to a heeding of deceitful spirits and the teachings of demons (1 Tim 4:2) Paul simply says it will occur in the "later times" and produce hypocrisy and a searing of the conscience. This apostasy will be religious and moral in nature (II Tim 3:1-7) and will happen prior to the rapture of the Church and before the revelation of the son of destruction, the Antichrist (II Thess. 2:1-5). Paul further teaches that the seeds of apostasy are present in the Church but they will also completely mature in the last days, which he describes as "difficult times" (II Tim. 3:1).

XVIII. The Tribulation

We believe that the rapture of the church will be followed by the fulfillment of Israel's seventieth week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 6:1 -19:21) during which the church, the body of Christ, will be in heaven. The whole period of Israel's seventieth week will be a time of judgment on the whole earth, at the end of which "the times of the Gentiles" will be brought to a close. The latter half of this period will be the time of Jacob's trouble (Jer. 30:7), which our Lord called the great tribulation (Mt. 24:15- 21). We believe that universal righteousness will not be realized previous to the second coming of Christ, but that the world is day by day ripening for judgment and that the age will end with a fearful apostasy.

XIX. The Second Coming of Christ

We believe that the period of great tribulation in the earth will be climaxed by the return of the Lord Jesus Christ to the earth as He went. The millennial age will follow, with Satan bound. Israel will be restored to her own land and the Abrahamic Covenant will be fulfilled by the consummation of its three divisions - Land (Palestinian Covenant), Seed (Davidic Covenant), and Blessing (New Covenant finally brought to complete fruition). The whole world that survives will be brought to a complete knowledge of the Messiah.

[Deut. 30:1-10; Isa. 11:9; Ezek. 37:21; Jer. 31:31- on; Mt. 24:15 - 25:46; Acts 15:16-17; Rom 8:19-23; 11:25-27; Rev. 20:1-3]

XX. The Eternal State

We believe that at death the spirits and souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation pass immediately into His presence and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the glorified body when Christ comes for His own, whereupon soul and body reunited shall be associated with Him forever in glory; but the spirits and souls of the unbelieving remain after death conscious of condemnation and in misery until the final judgment of the Great White Throne at the close of the millennium, when soul and body reunited shall be cast into the Lake of Fire, not to be annihilated, but to be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power.

[Luke 16:19-26; 23:42; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23; 2 Thess. 1:7-9; Judge 6 - 7; Rev. 20:11- 15]

XXI. Dispensationalism

We believe that the Bible presents the fact that God has not always dealt with mankind the same way in every age. According to Biblical terminology these distinct periods are called "administrations" in regard to the purpose of God or "stewardships" concerning the responsibility of man as originated from the New Testament usage of the Greek word, oikonomia. We believe that classical or traditional dispensationalism is the system that best represents the Biblical teaching on this matter. Classical or traditional dispensationalism is distinguished by a consistent literal interpretation; a clear distinction between Israel and the Church; taking into account progressive revelation; recognizing the glory of God as the ultimate purpose of God in the world

[Eph. 1:10 3:2, 9]

XXII. On Current Issues

We believe that corruptive influences have always been working against the Church, the body of Christ. Along with immoral forces, we reject the man-created philosophies of secular humanism, materialism, evolution, feminism, and the influences of secular psychology. While some truths may be imprinted into these and other opinion, basically, they run counter to the revealed truths of Scripture. [Rom. 1:18-32; 1 Cor. 6:9; 1 Tim 1:8-11]

XXIII. Women and Ministry

We believe that in the body of Christ men and women stand spiritually equal and constitute the Church universal. We believe women have had and always will have their God-given gifts and roles within this body. Accordingly, as the primary role of believing men is to be husbands and fathers, so the primary role of women is to be wives and mothers. We encourage women to have personal ministries, but the Scriptures are clear that male leadership is called to the local church positions of deacon, elder, and pastor-teacher. No amount of debate can water down what the Bible says about the individual and distinct callings of both sexes, in regard to gifts and positions. We encourage women to pursue study but the role of pastor-teacher is Biblically reserved for men.

[1 Tim. 2:9-15; 3:1-13; Titus 1:5-9; 2:1-8; 1 Cor. 14:34-35]

XXIV. Openness of God

We reject what is known as the Openness of God theory that says, in so many words, that God does not know the future. He is "open" to the free choices people make, and then responds to their free agency. This view violates the omniscience of God. It also violates the fact that in sovereignty, He has ordained all things. As difficult a doctrine as this is, it is still clearly stated in Scripture. The view of the Openness of God should be considered a heresy.

[Isa. 44:24-28; 45:3-7, 18-21; Rom. 8:28-30; 11:36; Acts 15:18]

XXV. Progressive Dispensationalism

We reject the theories of Progressive Dispensationalism. The central disturbing tenet in this view is that the Lord Jesus Christ is now reigning on the throne of David in heaven. We reject the complementary hermeneutic, including the use of the "already/not yet" as an interpretive principle. We also reject the softening of progressive revelation and the forcing of a false continuity between the Testaments. The Lord is seated at the right hand of the Father presently in glory, but this is not the prophesied Davidic rule that will take place in time and history.

[Lk. 2:32-33; Rev. 3:21; 1 Cor. 10:32]

GENERAL INFORMATION

TYNDALE BEHAVIOR POLICY

The Tyndale Behavior Policy requires all Tyndale community members, i.e. employees, contractors, advisors and students, to conduct themselves in a biblical manner when communicating in any manner or fashion with any other member of the Tyndale community. Any reported case of failure to do so will result in you being notified of the charges, an investigation, and opportunity for you to be heard, if you choose, followed by a decision, which could result in disciplinary action, including dismissal from Tyndale Theological Seminary & Biblical Institute.

TYNDALE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY & BIBLICAL INSTITUTE SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination that violates Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Each student, staff, and faculty member should be able to work in an atmosphere free of discriminatory intimidation based on sex, as well as intimidation based on race, color, age, national origin, or disability. Sexual harassment of students, staff, or faculty by any member of the Seminary community will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment includes any repeated or unwanted verbal or sexual advances, sexually explicit derogatory remarks, or offensive statements made by someone in the workplace when

- (1) submission to the conduct is either explicitly or implicitly a condition of employment, grades, or good will;
- (2) submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for grading or relational decisions affecting any person; or
- (3) the conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with student, staff, or faculty performance of duties, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or learning environment.

Any student experiencing or observing sexual harassment as described in any of the above categories should report the incident immediately to the Vice President of Operations. Due process will be followed in handling any complaints including possible criminal investigation.

Financial Information

Tyndale believes it is vital to provide accessible quality Biblical education at the lowest possible cost. We seek to help our students avoid the pressure of accumulating educational debts that can often cause some to yield to compromise. We are therefore committed to maintaining affordable tuition costs.

Tyndale Financial Aid Program

Tyndale is pleased to aid students within this program in two major ways:

- (1) The student pays a smaller amount monthly while enrolled, with payment completion scheduled concurrently with graduation. Under this program the student's education is fully paid for upon graduation, allowing the Tyndale student the opportunity to avoid going into debt to finance education.
- (2) Under this monthly plan, Tyndale will shoulder a significant portion of the program cost, decreasing the student's overall cost 10-18%, making Tyndale's programs even more affordable.

Students must apply in order to be considered for the financial aid plan. Students who are approved for the financial aid plan must maintain a 3.0 GPA and 12 credit hours per year.

Degree Program	Approximate Total Cost*: Standard Program	Approximate Total Cost: Monthly Program	Monthly Amount	Duration (months)	Approximate Total Tyndale Contribution

Scholarships

Through the generosity of Tyndale donors and the Seminary itself, Tyndale Theological Seminary is able to offer a number of endowed scholarships. The number of awards is very limited and varies each year. *Any Tyndale Theological Seminary student who meets the qualifications can apply for scholarship:

The Homeschool Graduate Scholarship – established to support homeschoolers and their families. All homeschool graduates entering the undergraduate program are eligible. Award is 50% of tuition cost per term awarded.

The Homeschool Parent Scholarship – established to invest in those who invest uniquely in their children by homeschooling. Any parents who are currently homeschooling at least one child and are entering any undergraduate Tyndale degree program are eligible (graduate programs not eligible). Award is 100% of tuition cost per term.

The Kay Courtney Courage and Devotion Award - established to honor the courage and devotion of Kay Courtney to her Lord and to her family. The scholarship is awarded annually to one woman who is nominated for courageous devotion to the Lord and to her family. Candidates who are nominated will be informed of their nomination and asked to submit an application. The most deserving applicant will be chosen by the scholarship committee from the nominees and awarded a one-year scholarship, to include tuition, fees, and books.

The Spouse Student Scholarship – Spouses of enrolled students in good standing may take courses at a scholarship rate of 75% tuition. Other fees and costs apply.

*Qualifications include (in addition to individual scholarship requirements):

1. Applying student must maintain 15 hours of attendance per year
2. Applying student must maintain a 3.5 GPA for all enrolled courses unless otherwise stipulated by the terms of the scholarship.

Failure to adhere to these qualifications during scholarship award period will result in revocation of unapplied scholarship awards.

INCORPORATION

Tyndale Theological Seminary and Biblical Institute is a ministry of HEB Ministries, and a recognized non-profit religious corporation chartered by the State of Texas. HEB Ministries has been granted tax-exempt status by the Texas State Comptroller of Public Accounts and by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) organization.

FOUNDING & LEADERSHIP

Tyndale was founded in 1988 under the direction of Dr. Mal Couch, who served as President until his retirement in April, 2006. Dr. Christopher Cone was appointed President of Tyndale in April, 2006, and in May of 2014 Dr. Patrick Belvill became the third President in the school's history.

ACCREDITATION

Tyndale Theological Seminary and Biblical Institute is not accredited, and has no plans to pursue any type of accreditation for several particular reasons: (1) to keep our expenses low, enabling Tyndale to maintain its very low tuition rates – pursuit of accreditation would require a dramatic increase in costs passed on to the student; (2) to maintain doctrinal autonomy, and (3) to continue the utilization of Tyndale educated faculty to ensure theological and philosophical consistency with the doctrinal statement and mission of Tyndale – pursuit of accreditation would make this increasingly difficult.

Finally, we believe the quality of Tyndale programs is evident, and Tyndale graduates will be distinguished by their maturity, understanding, and skill in exegetical and expositional disciplines. We believe our programs are of the highest quality, and we are committed to continuous improvement in the academic realm, and therefore we believe that prospective students or any students transferring from other institutions will be impressed by the academic standards of Tyndale.

General Information

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Tyndale accepts for transfer properly earned credits (with a C or above for the Institute and a B or above for the Seminary) at the discretion of the Registrar. Transfer students must complete a minimum of 30 hours at Tyndale in order to graduate. Biblical courses will be reviewed before being accepted for transfer credit. Students may begin classes before their transcripts arrive from other schools, but transcripts must be in Tyndale's office within one month of application. There is a $15 charge for official transcripts sent from Tyndale to students or other schools.

GENERAL REGISTRATION AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

There is a one-time registration and application fee of $65.00 for all new students. If students miss one semester, except for the Summer Semester, a re- registration fee of $30.00 will be required. If a student becomes inactive for a period of six months or longer, they must re-enroll under the current catalog.

If a returning campus student fails to enroll before the deadline date, an additional late fee will be required.

Full tuition is only refundable up to one week after the classes have begun. Half tuition is refundable up to two weeks after the semester begins with no refunds after the second week. There are no textbook refunds on courses dropped or exchanged.

A student may withdraw from a class, receiving a WP, through the fourth week of school, provided he is passing the course. He must notify the class instructor and Registrar of the withdrawal. After the fourth week, any type of withdrawal receives a grade of WF.

NOTE ON ELECTIVE COURSES

On occasion the Faculty might recommend particular electives to balance the curriculum of certain students. The choice of elective may also be determined in part by the course track of the student.

REQUIREMENTS FOR CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

Assignment Format

All assignments and coursework are to be turned in via Tyndale student email (@tyndale.edu address). Students are not required to turn in assignments in hard copy. Students must send any required notes, questions, papers, etc. via email as separate attachments in .doc or .docx formats.

Coursework should be submitted directly to the Professor/Instructor (for Campus and Learning Center students) or to the Advising Professor/Instructor (for Online students). The subject line for all submitted coursework should be formatted as follows to ensure receipt of the material:

Campus Students: Professor Name, Class # & Name, Student Name, Assignment Title
(e.g.: C, Johnson, BIBL2301 Hermeneutics, Smith, Paper#1)

Learning Center Students: LC Location, Campus Prof. Name, Class # & Name, Student Name
(e.g.: Mason, Johnson, BIBL2301 Hermeneutics, Smith)

Online Students: Online Prof. Name, Class # & Name, Student Name, Assignment Title
(e.g.: O, Johnson, BIBL2301 Hermeneutics, Smith, Paper#1)

Electronically submitted coursework will be returned along with a final grade via email after the course has been graded.

Assignment Due Dates

Campus/Learning Center students will submit all assignments according to the schedule as outlined in the syllabus. Final assignments are to be submitted no later than the last class period of the semester.

Online students must maintain interaction with Advising Professor/Instructor throughout the duration of the course, and will submit all assignments as directed by the Advising Professor/Instructor. (They will have a max of 12 weeks to complete the course, but may finish sooner if they desire)

Writing Guidelines

All research papers and theses are to follow Turabian guidelines as found in the current edition of Kate L. Turabian's A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2007). All students are required to purchase a copy of A Manual for Writers to ensure the proper format. All work is to follow these guidelines:

1. Font & Font Size: Times New Roman, 12 point
2. Double space
3. 1-inch margins (File – Page Setup – Margins)
4. Indent paragraphs .5 inch (Format– Paragraph – Indent left)
5. Page numbers – lower center or upper right –beginning with the first page of text, but not on title page; Arabic numbers only (e.g., 1, 2; not Roman numerals); no other header or footer
6. Title page; then title again on page one (for formal papers)
7. In essay-type papers, ALWAYS write logically, persuasively, focused on the assigned topic; include a succinct introduction that informs the reader concerning the subject of your paper, and a succinct conclusion that summarizes your main points and expresses your resulting conclusion.

8. Use footnotes rather than endnotes, except in dissertation/thesis, where section endnotes are also acceptable.

9. All work should be proofread, as errors in spelling, grammar, and syntax will reduce assignment grade.

Plagiarism Policy

Plagiarism is against Tyndale policy, and any act of plagiarism will result in disciplinary action up to student dismissal from further study at Tyndale. Plagiarism includes but is not limited to quoting materials without proper citing or reference. Cutting and pasting of online and other materials requires proper citing via quotation marks and footnote.

Contact

If you anticipate difficulty in meeting any of these requirements, please contact your Professor (for Campus/Learning Center students) or your Advising Professor/Instructor (Online students) as soon as possible. A complete review of all Tyndale policies and procedures can be found in the Tyndale Theological Seminary and Biblical Institute Academic Catalog.

THE ISSUE OF MATURE GRADUATES

Tyndale Seminary attempts to train students who are spiritually mature and committed to the ministry of Jesus Christ. Though we try to know as much as we can about our students, it is impossible to know everything. We pray that all of our students are progressively growing in the knowledge and grace of the Lord Jesus Christ.

If students are struggling with deep spiritual problems, it is best that the students defer graduation in order to get their spiritual house in order. However, they may continue their studies, with our prayer, that the Word of God may provide the answers to the problems. Tyndale is also open to offer spiritual help with hurting students.

If a student is found to have major spiritual, doctrinal, moral, or ethical problems Tyndale holds the right to defer the issuing of a degree until a student is deemed morally and/or ethically sound.

Tyndale Seminary Press

Tyndale Seminary Press is a ministry of Tyndale Theological Seminary, and is committed to providing solid publications in Biblical studies and theology. Several titles are now available through the Tyndale Online Bookstore.

Journal of Dispensational Theology (formerly the Conservative Theological Journal)

The JODT is the academic journal of Tyndale Theological Seminary, and is committed to asserting and defending sound Biblical exegesis and the resulting Biblical theology on both an academic and practical level. Recognizing that dispensational theology is not relevant merely to a few aspects of theology, and that a sound Biblical theology will be dispensational and will encompass every area of theology, the JODT is committed also to asserting and defending dispensational distinctives.

Supporting Tyndale

Tyndale Theological Seminary seeks to offer the highest quality Biblical education to our students, and to maintain the highest level of accountability. (Please see Tyndale's 9 Standards of Accountability) We are grateful for your prayerfully considered assistance in the following areas:

The General Fund – Helps us to maintain very low tuition rates and relieve students of some of the financial burden of attending Seminary and preparing for ministry.

The Scholarships Fund – Helps us assist well-qualified students who meet specific criteria.

The Library Fund - Allows Tyndale to provide students access to vital research tools and books.

Memorial Gifts - Provide scholarships and endowments in honor of a loved one.

Annuities, Trusts, & Estate Gifts - Help build the future for the ministry of Tyndale

The Journal of Dispensational Theology (JODT) - Support the publication of the Journal of Dispensational Theology and the JODT Conferences.

Tyndale Behavior Policy

TYNDALE BEHAVIOR POLICY

The Tyndale Behavior Policy requires all Tyndale community members, i.e. employees, contractors, advisors and students, to conduct themselves in a biblical manner when communicating in any manner or fashion with any other member of the Tyndale community. Any reported case of failure to do so will result in you being notified of the charges, an investigation, and opportunity for you to be heard, if you choose, followed by a decision, which could result in disciplinary action, including dismissal from Tyndale Theological Seminary & Biblical Institute.

TYNDALE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY & BIBLICAL INSTITUTE SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination that violates Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Each student, staff, and faculty member should be able to work in an atmosphere free of discriminatory intimidation based on sex, as well as intimidation based on race, color, age, national origin, or disability. Sexual harassment of students, staff, or faculty by any member of the Seminary community will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment includes any repeated or unwanted verbal or sexual advances, sexually explicit derogatory remarks, or offensive statements made by someone in the workplace when

- (1) submission to the conduct is either explicitly or implicitly a condition of employment, grades, or good will;
- (2) submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for grading or relational decisions affecting any person; or
- (3) the conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with student, staff, or faculty performance of duties, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or learning environment.

Any student experiencing or observing sexual harassment as described in any of the above categories should report the incident immediately to the Vice President of Operations. Due process will be followed in handling any complaints including possible criminal investigation.
